The Gambia’s eco-tourism sector

- 5-7 hours from most of Europe by air, The Gambia is fortunate to have a rare combination of attributes that make the country a world-class eco-tourism destination.

- The Gambia’s navigable, unspoilt river, coupled with unique cultural and wildlife attractions, make it the ideal eco-tourism landing spot for Sub-Saharan Africa.

- With a proud 30-year track record as a leading West African destination and a proven successful track record in eco-tourism, The Gambia’s Government is committed to cementing the country’s position as a world-class destination.

KEY FACTS:

- Tourism a key priority sector:
  - Accounts for 16,000 jobs (formal and informal)\(^1\)
  - Contributes about 12% of GDP\(^1\)

- 100,000 tourists per year\(^2\)

- Repeat tourists: 40%\(^3\)

- Predicted tourism growth rate: 3.7% until 2018\(^2\)

- Resort labour costs around 10% of total hotel costs\(^3\) (compared with international average of +40%)\(^4\)

- 400 tourism students graduate each year\(^1\)

Locations and infrastructure

- The West Coast and broader Western Region, home to existing eco-tourism centres, are easily reachable from Banjul International Airport.

- Banjul Airport has undergone a US$21 million modernisation and the Government is continuing to upgrade the infrastructure. Passenger traffic at the airport reached 318,240 in 2011 – a 5% increase on 2010’s figures.

- The north- and south-bank roads along the navigable river ensure easy access from the rest of the country.

Tourists in The Gambia

- The vast majority of tourists in the Gambia tend to come from Northern Europe.

- The UK is typically the largest source market by far. The chart to the right shows the principal source markets between January and October 2012. The Netherlands and to a lesser extent Sweden, Germany, Spain and Belgium are also important markets.

- Many of these core markets have a strong affinity with eco-tourism and environmentally-friendly, sustainable lifestyles. This reinforces The Gambia’s potential as a centre for eco-tourism in West Africa.

Direct flights currently link The Gambia to numerous countries in West Africa, North Africa and Western and Northern Europe.

Sixteen commercial airlines currently fly to Banjul International Airport – the most recent addition (Spain’s Vueling) commenced operations in spring 2013.

Key major European cities such as London, Madrid, Barcelona, Amsterdam, Brussels, Milan, Frankfurt, Stockholm, Oslo, Copenhagen, Manchester and Birmingham all have direct flights to Banjul.

Nature Reserves and Parks

- The Gambia is home to rich and diverse wildlife that attract eco-tourists year after year. Principal nature reserves include the following:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Nature Reserve</th>
<th>Details</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Bijilo Forest Park</td>
<td>Covers 51 hectares and is easily accessible with its location in Kololi along the coast and the Senegambia tourist area. Popular for its birds and monkeys.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Abuko Nature Reserve</td>
<td>Covers 105 hectares in Western Gambia. The reserve protects a large tract of gallery forest, and it is particularly noted for its bird and monkey populations.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Baobolong Wetland Reserve</td>
<td>Located on the northern bank of the Gambia River in central Gambia, opposite Kiang West. This wetland covers 22,000 hectares.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Kiang West National Park</td>
<td>Located on the southern bank of the river in central Gambia. Its 11,000 hectares are dominated by dry woodland vegetation, with mangroves and mud flats.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>River Gambia National Park</td>
<td>It is a 580 hectare park covering five mid-river islands near Georgetown in eastern Gambia. It was established mainly as a rehabilitation sanctuary for chimpanzees.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Tanji River Bird Reserve</td>
<td>Located on the coast. Its 612 hectares include dunes, lagoons, mangroves, dry woodland and is popular for the variety of birds which can be seen in the reserve.</td>

The Gambia’s eco-tourism community

The Gambia is already home to a developed community of stakeholders in the eco-tourism industry (including businesses, industry associations and representative groups). A few examples of these organisations are displayed below.

The presence of these businesses and supportive organisations demonstrates The Gambia’s attractiveness and potential as a prime location in West Africa for eco-tourism development.

Availability of incentives

- A host of incentives are available to investors in eco-tourism accommodation, provided certain criteria relating to investment value and job creation are met. These incentives include:

- Tax holiday: tax breaks on corporate and turnover tax, withholding tax on dividends and depreciation allowance for period of 5-8 years, depending on the project’s location

- Import Sales Tax Incentives: Exemption from payment of import sales tax on direct inputs for the project

- Free land: Under The Gambia’s “Tourism Development Area” (TDA) initiative, investors in eco-tourism accommodation can be offered land for free if the investment is in a TDA

1. To access incentives, a new investment must be worth at least US$250,000 and lead to the creation of at least three jobs in the tourism sector. Source: GIEPA Regulations 2012. More information on criteria available from GIEPA.
Operating costs

- The Gambia has by far the most efficient labour market in West Africa and offers competitive costs in the hospitality sector.
- Labour only accounts for around 10% of total resort costs, compared with an international average of more than 40%.

INDICATIVE KEY COSTS:

- Average daily wages for unskilled labour hover between US$2-4 a day.
- Energy: 10.40 GMD / kWh (hotel tariff).
- Telecoms: - From 0.73 GMD / min.
- Key taxes: - Corporate: 32% (exemption possible).
  - Income: up to 35%.

Government policy position

- The Gambian Government recognizes the importance of private sector participation in the economy, both as an engine of growth and as a source of knowledge transfer.

- The Government’s tourism policy is guided by the Tourism Development Master Plan (TDMP), which emphasises growth, development and marketing of The Gambia as an interesting, attractive and exciting tourism destination. The TDMP identifies eco-tourism as one of the key niche markets that should prioritised for development.

- Consistent with its tourism policy and the promotion of private sector development, the Government has established:
  - Gambia Tourism Board (GTB)
  - Gambia Hospitality and Tourism Institute (GHTI)
  - 10 specific Tourism Development Areas (TDAs)
A helping hand – every step of the way

- The Gambia Investment and Export Promotion Agency (GIEPA) is the Government Agency mandated to support companies with their investment, business and export development as well as support to MSMEs.

- From the initial provision of information right through to supporting the establishment, growth and development of an investment project, GIEPA is your supporting partner for doing business in The Gambia – every step of the way.

- Here are just a few of the ways in which GIEPA can support your business:

  - Provide all business-related information to current and potential investors
  - Serve as the link between investors and authorities
  - Help to identify joint venture partners
  - Help to obtain licences, land, clearances etc.
  - Provide advisory services and training to exporters
  - Support companies planning to expand / diversify
  - Provide ongoing assistance to companies once they’ve started operations
  - Administer and advise on incentives
