Object: Expression of interest – Direct Gambian Interventions.

Dear Sirs,

ASSOFRIGORISTI is the Italian National Association of the technician dealing with Refrigeration and Air Conditioning and is providing technical, normative and entrepreneurial support to the associates.

One of the main sector we give support to is the so called “cold chain”, a great tool providing healthy and fresh food to the global market.

Our organization, then, do deal mainly in the

- Industrial/Commercial Cold Systems

Thanks to our associates we are able to support engineering and installation in the Agro-Fish-Commercial sectors with direct project and suppliers for the materials, and managing the works in The Gambian locations in collaboration with local installer of complete cold system.

On the basis of what shown, we are interested on having more details about possible future projects and partnership in The Gambia and if possible to take part in a definite project with direct technical meeting with the local Institutions, and others.
